The season ended on a great night with the Halloween party at the wheelhouse. Some great costumes turned up and Royce did a fine job with the entertainment. It's almost a sad time a year for us boaters, but spring will be here soon and again we will be boating after a winter break to recharge our batteries.

I would like to say thanks to all of our members who have volunteered their time to our club this year. Without our members donating their time to the club, it would be impossible for our club to survive. WYC will have new leadership next year, so I urge all members to get involved on a committee or just donate some time and help support our new leadership. I feel we will have a great year next year and I want to wish Burt and his new bride good luck.

Cleveland Boat Show to be Re-Lauched in 2010

This January's boat show in Cleveland will be given a new name and new focus in an effort to reshape the 53-year-old event to fit today's boating market.

The Mid-America Boat & Fishing Show will be held Jan. 15-24 at the I-X Center and will feature pre-owned product alongside the newest fishing boats, powerboats, sailboats and personal watercraft. According to Show Manager Ken Alvey, "most boaters enter the sport through the used market and half of all boaters on Lake Erie use their boats for fishing. Those are two large markets and it was a no-brainer to change the event's makeup the primarily a powerboat show to include them."

A Boating Funny!

After one particularly difficult passage, a famous cruising couple find themselves at the Pearly Gates, where their lines are taken by St. Peter himself. "There doesn't seem to be much record of you, good or bad," he says. "so I'm going to let you decide for yourselves whether you go to heaven or hell. First let me describe them for you. On the one hand, you could spend eternity in cramped quarters, your beds a few inches shorter than you are tall, your food and water always rationed, and a shower something you could only dream of."

"And what about hell?" the couple asked.

Sound familiar? And like boating on Lake Erie from June through September, which would be heaven right about now!
